~~True~~ False Dungeon

PUZZLE HUNT XI

Solve just 1 puzzle for a chance to win a FREE 4-day badge to Gen Con 2013!

We all need an escape from reality sometimes! And what's Gen Con, but a chance for that escape. Sure, there are some people who like to put the "True" in "Dungeon." That's fine and everything if you like to immerse yourself in a convincingly true dungeon world. But it's also fun – and free – to let go of the truth for a while.

Well, GEN CON Puzzle Hunt XI: False Dungeon is your chance! Our Dungeon is as big as Gen Con with "rooms" (otherwise known as placards) scattered throughout the convention. In each room you will find a puzzling creature or challenge. As you solve each incredibly high-tech puzzle write the answers on the answer page opposite. Solve all of them and defeat the terrifying dragon boss monster, and you'll get the most chances to win a free pass to Gen Con 2013.

Also at stake are twenty passes to Gen Con Indy 2013. Solving puzzles will gain you chances to win one of fifteen passes. You'll get one entry just for solving the Strange and Magical Book puzzle on these pages. And you'll get one entry for every five puzzles you answer. Trust us, we never sell out of tickets!

The other five passes will go to the first five people who do the most damage to the megaboss dragon. See the section on our treasure tokens for how that works.

To submit answers, enter to win, or get questions answered, go to the Puzzle Hunt booth and interact with some sort of elf or wizard or something. We spare no expense, because we don't have an expense budget!

The Strange and Magical Book

Spellcasting in False Dungeon is much like any other game, but we really can't afford the high-end, fancy-pants spells. Instead we have to make our own second-rate knockoffs that sound somewhat the same. Match two (or, in one case, three) component words and then spoonerize them—that is, swap their first sounds, like "tragical mix" to "magical tricks"—to get a spell from that RPG we can't afford to license. The boxed letters will lead you to the final incantation, which you should tell our staffers for your first answer.

CHEAP COMPONENTS:

BOON	BOWL	BUYER	COWER	DAZE
FALL	LORD	MA'AMS	MAGE	MEME
PURRED	RED	RICK	RIGHT	RINDLESS
RUN	SCORN	SIGNED	STAY	SUE
THIN	TREEING	TROPE	WIFE	WILL

SPELLS WE CAN'T AFFORD:

1. S□_ _ _ _ _
2. L_ _□ _ _ _ _ _
3. F_ _ _ _ _ _□_
4. P_ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _□
5. R_ _□_ _ _ _ _ _
6. R_□_ _ _ _ _ _ _
7. S_□_ _ _ _ _ _
8. M_ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ □_ _ _ _
9. T_ _ _ _□_ _ _ _ _ _
10. T_ _ _ _ _ _ _ _□_ _
11. M_ _□_ _ _ _ _ _
12. R_ _'_ _ _□_ _

FINAL INCANTATION: _____

Our highly Collectible Treasure Tokens!

You come to False Dungeon for the thrilling adventure, but you'll stay for the treasure tokens! At The Hastily Organized Trading Post, the staff will have a great many treasure tokens. You can trade each answer for one token from the trading post, and write the answer to one of the puzzles on it (maximum one token per puzzle). When you are ready to fight the boss dragon, every treasure token will be evaluated based on how many unique letters it has in common with the answer you placed on it, regardless of where or how often they occur in the name. Each matching unique letter is a point of damage against the dragon, and if you find the dragon's secret weakness, you'll get a 25-point bonus! The first five players who deal the most damage against the dragon will win the insta-win passes. That's just the kind of awesome we offer here at False Dungeon!

DANIEL AND THE LION*

Hailing from the secluded town of Baraboo, WI, the members of Daniel and the Lion, a nationally touring folk-rock band, first became friends playing Magic: The Gathering and Dungeons and Dragons together at a local hobby shop. Their love of gaming took a backseat while they toured the country, but now they're bringing their music back to where it all began: Gen Con.

"Before we were even a band, I had written a song with all these Magic card names hidden in the lyrics," says singer Jimmie Linville. "It was just for fun at first, but people really seemed to like it, and when we played it for our friends at Gen Con, we got a ton of support and positive feedback. That support was one of the things that really got us going in the beginning."

Their music has come a long way from Magic card lyrics though, as they play over 200 shows a year, including playing at Summerfest, the world's largest music festival, and having shared a stage with bands such as OK Go, Good Old War, BoDeans, Marc Broussard, Big Head Todd, and Meiko. Come see them perform at Gen Con, then game with them afterward.

Kenny has performed at dozens of events, including the New York Faerie Festival, Starwood, Sirius Rising, PantheaCon, and the Arizona Faerie Festival, and he has recorded a number of CDs geared toward Pagan, Fan and Renaissance Festival audiences. MARC GUNN - THE CELTFATHER*

Cats. Sci Fi. Renaissance Festivals. Irish drinking songs. Nowhere else but from the bizarre imagination of Marc Gunn would those four elements be so neatly integrated. Nicknamed "The Celtfather", Marc Gunn is a champion of the Celtic MP3. He has given away over 10,000,000 MP3s since he began his Celtic music career in 1999. He allows fans to download and share his most-popular songs straight from his website for FREE!

Marc Gunn is an award-winning acoustic folk musician rooted in the American Celtic song tradition—Celtic music, the Traditional and the Twisted. His musical instrument of choice-the autoharp-continues to surprise musical veterans and fans alike for its unique sound and spirited energy.

His latest two albums combine drinking songs and Sci Fi/fantasy music. "Firefly Drinking Songs" was recorded with the award-winning Bedlam Bards and showcases his love of Joss Whedon's incredible TV show. "Don't Go Drinking With Hobbits" is "Lord of the Rings"-inspired, and highlights the hobbits' love of eating, drinking and song.

Gunn has entertained audiences throughout Europe. He combines his love of travel and music, leading small Celtic Invasion Vacations with like-minded travel and music lovers. He has shared the stage with Voltaire, Emerald Rose, The Great Luke Ski, and the World's Fastest Filker, Tom Smith.

MAROONED*

Marooned, the pirates from the desert have performed at Renaissance and pirate festivals throughout the country, as well as working the convention circuit and making appearances for corporate clients such as A&E and Real Networks. Always looking for their next challenge, in 2004 the crew set sail for Gen Con SoCal and the rest is history. For eight years now, the crew of Marooned has entertained gamers from Anaheim to Indy. Now a fixture in the hallways of the Con, these singing pirates bring with them a combined total of over 100 years experience in singing songs that are...well...over 100 years old. You can even take home some of these renditions, as they've been diligently working on a new release, "Dance Macaw".

Once more, Sea Shanties and pub favorites shall ring out in the hallways of the Indiana Convention Center. So raise the sails, load the cannons, and be sure to watch your dice. There are pirates about!

RUSTY BAWLS

The Curls are on tour again!! Yup Rusty Bawls hits Gen Con with his outlandish brand of oxidized down under comedy silliness. You know it, you want it … again! Rusty is like that tangy taste in the back of your throat that even mints won't get rid of … well, for those of you that like chewing on rusty nails?!

The world's biggest nerd, (hey you think you guys are nerdy", try this guys' pick up line, "Hey Baby, I'm a juggler" and see how far you get!), has even changed the spelling of his name. Bawls?! That way he won't cause offence! So come on down all you misunderstood minorities, (yup that's you nerds), and see the most down trodden misunderstood minority of them all, The Curly Red head.

And he returns with his down under accomplice, brave stunt sheep, "Lamb Chop". Yeah, well, it gets lonely on the road?!

Yes it's all the usual rustic, obnoxious, dodgy weirdness that you guys love, (yeah, you know you do), plus a bunch of brand new idiocy as well. You know Rust never sleeps and neither will you at this guy's very funny show. Just make sure you get your tetanus shots. Hmmmm, sounds painful. Well, so is the Rusty Bawls show. And there is your disclaimer. You Americans love that.

Awww, sod it, just come and see the bloody, (get it) show??!!

Oh and all you Star Wars Nerds will love Rusty's roving act this year: The Biggest Wookie in the Universe!! When they say, "don't miss it!" you really won't?!

THE GREAT LUKE SKI*

At Dragon*Con 2004, Dr. Demento declared "the great Luke Ski" to be his radio program's "Most Requested Artist of the 21st Century". Since then, Luke held onto that title by having songs on "The Dr. Demento Show's" annual year-end "Funny 25" countdown of his most requested songs of the year for ten years in a row, including three of them at #1 ("Peter Parker" 2002, "Stealing Like A Hobbit" 2003, "Snoopy The Dogg" 2011) and two of them at #2 ("You Don't Know Jack" 2006, "Too Much Stuff" 2009). His song parodies, originals, stand-up and sketches about pop culture phenomena have made him a favorite performer at science-fiction and fandom conventions all across the midwest and beyond.

He's released ten albums and a DVD over the past sixteen years, many of which feature collaborations and cameos by his fellow comedy musicians of the Funny Music Project (www.theFuMP.com), most significantly Carrie Dahlby, who often sings lead vocals on Luke's parodies of female musicians. His past hits amongst his fans include songs about Spider-Man, Lord of the Rings, Star Wars, Star Trek, Pirates of the Caribbean, Battlestar Galactica, Batman, Firefly, Doctor Who, Babylon 5, and Family Guy, with more recent hits about Disney buying Marvel, Twitter, Anime, Bruce Campbell, The Big Bang Theory, Monty Python, and Snoopy. Notable Conventions Luke has performed at: San Diego Comic-Con, Star Wars Celebration, Dragon*Con, NASFIC, Creation's 40th Anniversary Star Trek Convention, GenCon Indy, Origins, Nerdapalooza, MarsCon, and many more. He is the musical jester of sci-fi, the emissary of rap dementia, the pimp of the geek nation, and a prominent bacon enthusiast. So join the Dementia Revolution, and become a Luke Ski fan today!

WATER STREET BRIDGE*

Born the illegitimate brain child of Jon Baade and James Kuehl, Water Street Bridge cracked the music scene (in the head), defying conventionality and creating their own mashed up style of Celtic, blues, Americana, shanty, jazz, Creole, folk, art rock, reggae, comedy and original songs into something that can only be described as "eclectic acoustic." Michi Regier, fiddler extraordinaire, and Richard Miller, percussionist profound, now round out this four headed monster. Bringing their own unique perspective on music (and the fact that any good music is in 7/8) they've opened the door to a host of Balkan music. And it certainly doesn't hurt that they raise the "hotness" factor of the group.

Brandishing an impressive arsenal of musical instruments (including guitar, resonator guitar, mandolin, ukulele, fiddle, banjo, pennywhistle, squeeze box, harmonica, tupan, washboard, doumbek, conga, djembe, and bodhran - just to name a few) they bring new life to tales of old, old sounds to tales of today and twisted takes on tales never meant to be told.

NEW HOTNESS

Congratulations! You have landed on Indianapolis! While there may not be any Free Parking, you can draw as many New Game cards as you wish! Then play them on your friends back home, to set up the coveted Bragging Rights combo attack. Oh, and roll again.

Speaking of rolling again, White Wolf revives and unwraps its Egyptian dreams with Mummy: the Curse, an undying RPG for the new World of Darkness. Mayfair spawns Catan Jr. Cubicle 7 regenerates with the Eleventh Doctor and a new look for the Doctor Who RPG and a new Doctor Who Card Game. Pinnacle relaunches its gonzo post-apocalypse Hell on Earth, this time for Savage Worlds. Eagle Games sensibly expands its Defenders of the Realm boardgame into Battlefields while Flying Frog just plain relocates the Last Night on Earth to Timber Peak as a standalone zombie boardgame expansion.

If Indianapolis isn't quite your speed, maybe you'd prefer the Underdark? Wizards of the Coast would prefer you to prefer the Underdark: once you've got your copy of Into the Unknown: Dungeon Survival Handbook, it's time to delve too deeply with Dungeon Tiles: Urban Underdark, mark your spot on the Vaults of the Underdark map pack, and draw some Drow Treachery Fortune Cards when you reach Menzoberranzan: City of Intrigue! All this plus the Sting of Lolth 12-mini drow war band for Dungeon Command, two new novels (Skein of Shadows by Marsheila Rockwell and Charon's Claw by R.A. Salvatore), and Underdark dungeon maps and pre-painted terrain by Gale Force 9 will make sure you never cavil at Indianapolis' relatively spider-free streets again.

But hey, maybe you want horrid things in your streets. Try Building an Elder God, a pipe game (tentacle game?) from Signal Fire Studios. Or play the best monster-and-livestock dice game of the year, Chupacabra, by the Haywire Group. Or look up above the streets at the Rotted Capes, a superheroic zombie apocalypse RPG from Paradigm Concepts. No streets? The Void RPG from Wildfire does Lovecraftian SF, while Looney Labs' Cthulhu Fluxx changes all the rules, including traffic rules and the rules of physics!

By now, you'll need some Ultimate Equipment, and fortunately Paizo has 400 pages of it for you, plus 400 more in the Rise of the Runelords Anniversary Edition. Paizo updated and upgraded its first ever d20 adventure path for the PFRPG, and WizKids adds some Rise of the Runelords pre-painted Pathfinder Battles minis to the party, plus more DC HeroClix and a Pirates of the Spanish Main card game. Speaking of DC and cards, Cryptozoic unleashes the DC Comics Deck-Building Game, and speaking of edition changes and cards, GameNation releases the Edition Wars card game. About RPGs.

That's nothing -- Bandai has a boardgame-cardgame combo based on the Uncharted computer game, while Chaostle from Chivalry Games is a skirmish mini-boardgame combo with 3-D castle sections. Coincidentally, Steve Jackson Games brings plastic castle pieces to space-control high strategy gaming with Castellan – and brings the grim barbarism of Conan to the goofy barbarism of Munchkin with (you guessed it) Munchkin Conan. Cubicle 7 gets your Chinese in my Western with the Far West RPG, my dinosaurs in your gunplay with the Primeval RPG, and my rock'n'roll in your science with the Buckaroo Banzai RPG. Pelgrane Press mixes spies and vampires in the Night's Black Agents RPG. AEG just mashes up all the genres with its "shuffle-building" multi-deck card game Smash-Up!

Kenneth Hite has been a full-time RPG writer and designer since 1996. He blogs at princeofcairo.livejournal.com, Facebooks like everybody else on the planet, and Twitters @kennethhite.

Privateer Press covers it all too, from its semi-cooperative survival horror board game Level 7 [Escape] to a full-metal fantasy RPG called Iron Kingdoms, and takes the "miniature" out of minis games with super-heavy warjacks on 120mm bases! They clamber out of the Gargantuans expansion book for Hordes, while a goblin junkyard demolition derby breaks out in Privateer's new card game Heap. That sentence will seem perfectly normal after you've met Playroom's Psychic Penguins and the Voyage Home card and tile game; if it doesn't, play the Stratus Games party game of amateur psychoanalysis and charades, Off Your Rocker.

Lots more minis: DGS Games debuts its Freeblades skirmish miniatures game, while Osprey presents WWII rules in Bolt Action and Dark Ages rules in Dux Bellorum, with minis from Warlord. Impact! Miniatures knocks 'em to the rail with the Impact City Roller Derby board game, while Gorilla Games now asks How Much For Your Planet? in their SF tactical minis game Battlestations.

Indie superstar Elizabeth Shoemaker Sampat debuts her postlapsarian RPG They Became Flesh; Matt McFarland's postapocalyptic curse the darkness goes the other direction. Green Ronin goes to Westeros with the Night's Watch supplement for their Song of Ice & Fire RPG; Exile Game Studio seeks the Revelations of Mars for their Hollow Earth Expeditions RPG. Baksha Games' grindhouse chase game Banditos goes to Mexico. You go to "Dealer's Room," spend $200, and roll again.

TODD LOCKWOOD
ARTIST GUEST OF HONOR

Gen Con is thrilled to have such an award-winning illustrator, concept artist and world builder as our Artist Guest of Honor this year.

ABOUT MR. LOCKWOOD:

Todd Lockwood embarked upon his fantasy career with a trip to a convention in 1994. Shortly after, TSR and then Wizards of the Coast employed him to redefine the look of the popular Dungeons and Dragons game for its Third Edition release. Most distinctly, Todd (together with Sam Wood) modified the look of their dragons, giving them a new and dynamic realism.

Over the years, his work has appeared on NY Times best-selling novels, magazines, video games, and fantasy role-playing games. It has been honored with multiple appearances in Spectrum and the Communication Arts Illustration Annual, and with numerous industry awards. He creates his fantasy and science fiction images using a mystic combination of acrylics, oils, Corel Painter, Photoshop, blood, epithets, secret incantations, and beer.

Todd lives and works in Washington State with his wife and three children. His first art book, "Transitions", from Chrysalis books (U.K.), was released in September of 2003.

You can see more of his work at his website, www.toddlockwood.com/.

- To put an item in live auction - $1.50 per item or $3.00 if onsite data entry is required
- Sellers also need to pay the $1.00 one time charge for a number (which can also be used for bidding.)
- If your item sells, the auction takes a commission which will be a percentage of the sales price:
  - 15% for live auction items
  - Only 10% for store items!

HERE IS HOW IT WORKS...

BUYERS - simply register when you get to the auction, for $1.00, and you will be issued a buyer "NUMBER" card which you use to bid. When you want to bid on an item just hold your card up with the numbers facing the stage, and keep it up as long as you are still interested. If you stay in longer than all other auction attendees, you win! You can pay for each item right away as it is won or you can put down a deposit to open a Tab, allowing us to store your items for you until the end of the auction daily session. You do not need a bidder card to visit the consignment store; any person with a convention badge can enter & purchase items.

SELLERS - Payments for your items can be received by you as soon as your items are sold (rounded down to the nearest whole dollar). You can collect your money anytime during the auction up until the Charity Auction begins Saturday night. After that you can pick up your money on Sunday or just wait – we'll send you a check if you can't make it on Sunday. Any unsold items that you fail to collect by Sunday 2pm will be donated to charity.

Putting items for sale into the Consignment Store costs only $1.00. If you get in early, your item can be on display for up to 3 full days and you can choose to lower the price each day (if you want) to entice convention goers to buy your items as it goes on sale!

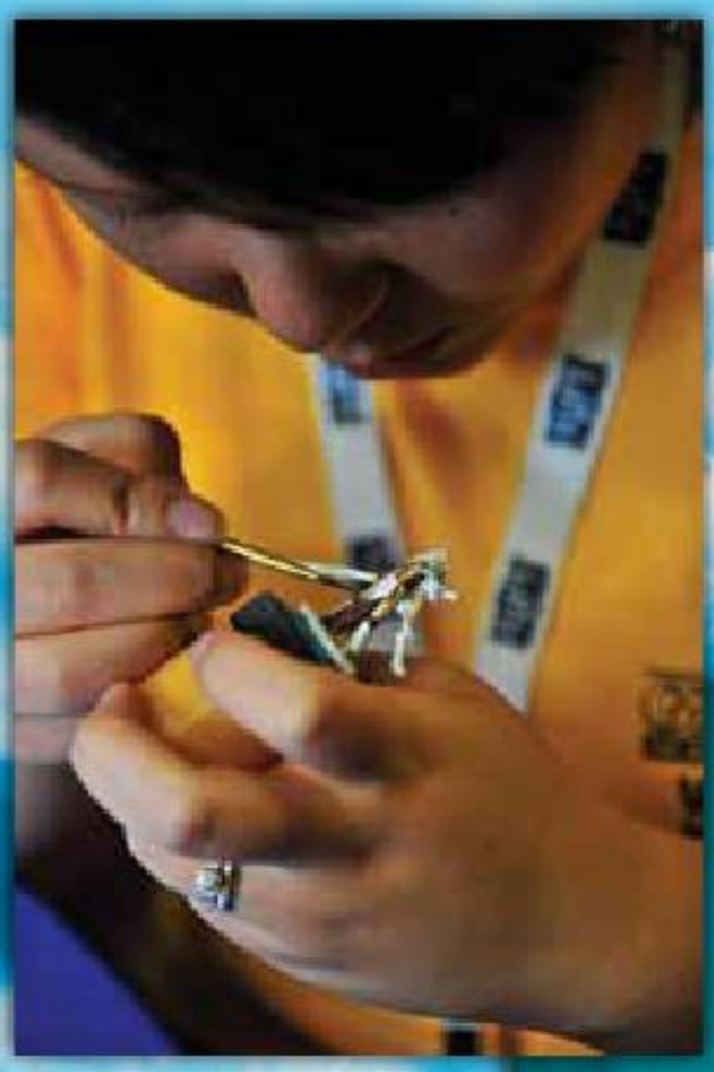
MINIATURE HOBBY EVENTS (MHE)

SPEED PAINT ARENA

On your mark, get set, PAINT! You'll have 45 minutes to paint a mini by your favorite company. Each session's winners come back to compete in the Championship Round on Sunday to determine the winner! Think you've got what it takes?

Speed Paint events are being hosted by the following companies:

- Dark Sword Miniatures
- Impact! Miniatures
- Privateer Press
- Reaper Miniatures
- Wyrd Miniatures



ACE OF ACES XI : CHARITY SPEED PAINT & AUCTION

An annual favorite, Ace of Aces, now in its eleventh year, is speed painting for charity. The Aces event features 10 of the best mini painters at Gen Con - their models go for big money, they've won many awards, they teach workshops and are the cream of the crop.

We give the Aces 1 hour to finish an unknown mini; there is much sweat, tears and laughter as the timer counts down to zero. No pressure here!

The minis are then displayed until the Gen Con Charity Auction, where they will be auctioned as a single lot, including a certificate signed by all participants, a wood display base, and a box to pack them in safely. Last year the Aces raised over $400!

Come check them out and help us raise money for a good cause. This year's charity is STARS Youth Foundation.

NSDM GAME

Here's the game: "You players are the Legislature. You over there, you're the Cabinet. You folks in the corner are the military leadership. This guy's the President. The scenario is: it's the world as you know it today. Fix it. Start now."

The National Security Decision Making (NSDM) Game is a fast-paced, challenging political-military-economic simulation of strategy and geopolitics providing insight into cultures, political processes, geopolitical situations and challenges of nations around the world. It is developed from games used by senior U.S. Government officials to explore geopolitical options. NSDM originated at the U.S. Naval War College and is based on games used by senior U.S. Government officials to explore geopolitical options. It has been presented at the U.S. Air University, National Defense University, Marine Corps Intelligence Activity, the Rochester Institute of Technology, Ashland University, Ball State University, and has been at GenCon since 1992.

WHAT IS THE NSDM GAME?

NSDM is part seminar game and part live-action role play. Most find NSDM intellectually stimulating, vigorously competitive, and unlike any other gaming opportunity they have ever had. Every game has new scenarios, new countries in play, and new challenges.

Each player is assigned a role within a nation's decision making structure, from which he or she can affect the formulation of national policy in that nation in order to advance his or her assigned personal objectives. A player in the U.S. cell might be leader of a congressional faction, a cabinet Secretary, or a chief of one of the armed services. A player in China might represent a faction in the Communist Party, the internal security forces, the People's Liberation Army, entrepreneurs, or Muslim separatists. NSDM can simulate over 23 nations, each with unique military, political, economic and security issues, all based on real-world conditions and events.

Within each nation, players inevitably find themselves aligning with some other players in pursuit of common goals, and in opposition to others, as all seek to advance their agenda and achieve personal political ascendancy. Meanwhile, overlapping national interests draw the nations toward cooperation in some areas and conflict in others. Concurrently, the game control group injects information, events, and incidents that challenge the players' abilities to respond effectively within their nation's structure and across international lines (e.g. armed conflict, pandemic, economic collapse, natural disaster). Every game offers an interesting experience and an opportunity to perceive the world from the standpoint of another political system and culture. No two games are alike.

NSDM'S 2011 FOCUS: RUSSIA, KOREA, IRAN, OH MY!

What form of Chaos will follow the "end of history" as we fully embark into the 21st Century? Will it be the century of China, will the Pax Americana extend on into the future, or will we have a multi-polar world? A revised Russian cell is on our agenda for this year. Russia's twisted blend of democracy, personality cult, modern feudalism and Kleptocracy continues to fascinate onlookers. But with an economic recovery, surrounded by Europe, Iran, China and the U.S., what dance will the metamorphic major power perform on the world stage? Who will be Russia's dance partners? And who gets to choreograph it all? In a solid position to help the west with sanctions against Iran, or to thwart those sanctions, Russia can wield disproportionate diplomatic power; something that many argue they're very experienced at. We're following up on our highly successful Iran cell redesign with a deeper exploration of the unfolding crisis in southwest Asia. We expect to continue with our ongoing examination of North Korea in transition. And we can't let 2012 go without crewing up a big U.S. cell, at least once, and letting you fight out the Election. You will see new nations in play, with new issues and problems in every game. We'll be running our U.S. Civil War game three times, and probably retiring it after this convention, so with limited spots available, get in now if you're interested. In our lecture series, we're looking at anniversaries: 200th of Napoleon's Russian campaign, 150th of the U.S. Civil War and 50th of the Cuban Missile Crisis, including a "what if" theme examining alternative outcomes.

SPA GUEST OF HONOR
TONI CARR
A.K.A. JOAN OF DARK

Gen Con is thrilled to announce our very first SPA Guest of Honor. Please join us in welcoming Joan of Dark!

ABOUT OUR GUEST

Joan of Dark is sometimes called Toni Carr. But not very often. Joan started knitting when she asked her grandmother to show her how, and instantly regretted all the time in her life she had spent not knitting. Her first book, "Knockdown Knits", was all about roller derby and knitting. Her second book, "Knits for Nerds", is all about nerdy knitting. So one could guess that Joan is a roller derby loving knitting nerd. This would be correct. She is also a rescuer of animals, and surrounds herself with a tolerant husband, a llama named Flippy, a miniature horse named Starkey, Pigwidgeon (Widget) the parrot, a very cool dog named Ernie, a very weird dog named Sassy Burrito, and 3 cats named Hillbilly, Vega, and Lenore. She is also campaigning for a female duck named Howard, but the husband's tolerance may only stretch so far.

When she's not knitting, or skating, or running though muddy obstacle course races, she's working in her coffee shop, Strange Brew, playing the guitar or the bass, or occasionally having too many glasses of wine and entertaining her twitter followers with her tipsy ramblings

You can read about her adventures on her website, joanofdark.com or follow her as JoanofDarkKnits on twitter.

Joan of Dark will be hosting the following events while at Gen Con ...

- Nerdy Knitting with SPA Guest of Honor
  - Friday at 11am (SPA1237742)
  - Saturday at 1pm (SPA1235144)
  - Sunday at 10am (SPA1237845)
  - Sunday at 1pm (SPA1237748)
- Nerding Craft with SPA Guest of Honor, Friday at 5pm (SEM1237555)

The Gen Con Costume Contest celebrates its 27th year! Feast your eyes on some of the best costumes the industry has to offer. Join us Saturday at the Gen Con Main Stage in the 500 Ballroom for this exciting event. The Costume Contest is free to all; a Gen Con badge is required. The event includes pre-show and intermission entertainment too! Get there early to get a seat; this event becomes standing room only. Display your costume finery or just relax and watch the best show at the con!

CONTESTANT INFO

CONTEST BASICS

Costume entries may be simple walk-on-and-pivot displays or may involve a short presentation. Performances are limited to two minutes. You may perform your own speech, drama, song, or other skill, or you can simply model while our emcee narrates text that you provide. Either way, the emphasis of judging is on the costumes.

REGISTRATION

Advance registration is highly recommended. The costume contest is limited to 70 entries. If any category receives 20 entries, that category will be closed. Entries will be accepted on a first-come, first-entered basis. When the contest reaches capacity, a waiting list will be created. Entries on the waiting list will be admitted to the contest if a registered entry drops out or does not appear at check-in.

To register, fill out the form below. This form does not register you for the convention—only the costume contest. You must also register for the convention. A valid convention badge and two $2.00 generic tickets will be required when you sign in at Costume Contest Check-In. Cash will not be accepted!

Emcee Introduction: REQUIRED!! Our emcee will introduce you as you appear on stage. Write a short introduction for yourself that you would like the emcee to read. Type it or write it neatly and attach it to your entry form. This is your chance to impress the judges; include a description of the construction of your costume or a story about the character you're portraying. This description is limited to 125 words. We reserve the right to edit material.

On-site entries: If you must register on site, fill out the entry form (your introduction for the emcee must be attached and typed or neatly written) and drop it in the "Costume Contest Entry" box located at the Information Booth by 9:00 am on Saturday. If you miss this deadline, come directly to Costume Contest Check-In in the 500 Ballroom Foyer and we'll see if we have room for you.

Contestant Check-In: All contestants must appear at the Contest Check-In. Mailing or dropping an entry form reserves a space for you, but you are not officially registered until you appear at check-in. Contestants who do not appear at check-in (see times below) are considered dropped. Check-in takes about 30 minutes. Your emcee introduction is required at check-in.

COSTUME CATEGORIES

Choose a category for your costume and check it on the entry blank. We reserve the right to create new categories (if the Fantasy category gets 15 ninja entries, for example, we may make ninjas a new category). We won't shift you to a different category. In a case where cross-over is possible, just pick the category you prefer.

- Superheroes / Sci Fi (Robots, aliens, spaceship pilots, heroes, villains, and so on.)
- Fantasy / Historical (Wizards, barbarians, pixies, mermaids, Egyptian slaves, WWII soldiers, Renaissance maidens, and so on.)
- Child (Ages 0–13, all costume types)
- Anime (Any character, creature, or element from any anime source.)
- Groups (new this year!): Teams of three or more costumers. This category is optional for pairs.
- Game / Media Characters (Characters from movies, TV, video games, board games, roleplaying games, and so on).
- Professional (To keep the contest fair, you must enter the Professional category if you meet any of the following criteria, regardless of your age: 1) You are a past first-place winner of a Gen Con Costume Contest or other major costume contest; 2) Your costume was constructed by a professional in the garment or costume industry, whether it was you or someone else; 3) Your costume was constructed by someone who earns the majority of their living in the construction of costumes or clothing.)
- Pot Luck (Anything not covered above!)

After the winners are announced in each category, they'll be brought on stage briefly for judging in the "Best of Show" category. Everyone is eligible for this judging—

AUTHOR GUEST OF HONOR

Born in 1975 in Lincoln, Nebraska, Brandon Sanderson was finishing his thirteenth novel when Moshe Feder at Tor Books bought the sixth he had written. In 2005 Brandon held his first published novel, Elantris, in his hands. Tor also published Brandon's Mistborn trilogy, followed by Warbreaker and then The Way of Kings, the first in the planned ten-volume series The Stormlight Archive. He was chosen to complete Robert Jordan's Wheel of Time series; 2009's The Gathering Storm and 2010's Towers of Midnight will be followed by the final book, A Memory of Light, in 2013. A new Mistborn novel, The Alloy of Law, was published in November 2011, and four books in his middle-grade Alcatraz Versus the Evil Librarians series have been released by Scholastic.

Brandon has enjoyed RPGs for many years, and Crafty Games' Mistborn Adventure Game was released in late 2011. He is also an avid player and collector of Magic: The Gathering.

MANGA LIBRARY

Thursday, Friday & Saturday noon – 8 pm, Westin : Camerel
Sunday noon – 4 pm, Westin : Camerel

Manga, or Japanese comics, have been around for years, but have only recently exploded onto the mainstream scene. Once hard to find, manga is now readily available almost everywhere and even has its own section in most major bookstores. Whether you're a longtime fan of manga, or just want to stop by and see what all the buzz is about, there's something for you in the manga library, located in the Anime Alley.

The best part is, our manga library is free to all Gen Con attendees! Stop by any time the library is open (add hours if you can) and check out our extensive catalog, or ask the volunteers for recommendations. Make a selection and hand over your Gen Con badge to the manga librarian, and enjoy your manga in our comfortable and quiet library lounge for as long as you like. Return your manga to retrieve your badge, or to select another manga title. The manga library is a great place to decompress for a few minutes or a few hours at Gen Con, and get your anime fix.

AGE-APPROPRIATE SCREENINGS

One of the things that makes anime, Asian cinema and fan films so unique are their freshness and ability to shock us. Keep in mind that not all screenings or events are appropriate for all ages or all people. Please check age-ratings and be aware that some events will require proof of age to enter. If you have any questions or concerns, just stop by the Westin HQ desk for more info.

The Indiana Anime Club is a non-profit social organization based in central Indiana and is devoted to the promotion of anime and related arts. They accomplish this by getting together for meetings and special events and showing a lot of anime while having a lot of fun. Visit http://www.indyanime.org/ for more info.

WHAT IS WASABI ANIME?

From cons of long ago, from uncharted regions of fandom, comes a legend. The legend of Wasabi Anime. A might fan force, loved by Otaku, feared by trolls. As Wasabi's legend grew, fun increased across conventions. At Gen Con, an Anime Track existed. This is the story of the superforce of convention events folk. Specially trained to and brought in by Gen Con to BRING IT. Wasabi Anime: Defenders of the AWESOME.

Started in 2001, Wasabi Anime (Green Mustard Entertainment) has been designing unique interactive entertainment for consumer focused media shows (read: fan conventions) across the United States. They have appeared at dozens of shows in Atlanta, Indianapolis, Miami, Las Vegas, Orlando and other various cities. They are fond of Japanese cartoons and the color green. While many of the team do enjoy piña coladas, none of them will freely admit to deriving any enjoyment from being caught in the rain. With that in mind... try the green stuff; you'll like it! www.wasabianime.com

EVENT CHARTS

HOW TO SIGN UP FOR AN EVENT

To get a ticket to an event you want to attend (guaranteeing yourself a seat), go to an Event Registration kiosk and we will help you sign up for it. Having the event's specific game ID will speed up the process. If that event is sold out, we will try to help you find a similar event with tickets available.

Event tickets can be purchased at the Event Registration kiosks located in the convention center's Wabash-East hallway near the Maryland Street Entrance or at Event Registration kiosks in Hall F, the Crowne Plaza and the JW Marriott. See the Area Hotel Maps for specific locations. We accept cash and all major credit cards (American Express, Discover, MasterCard and Visa). We do not accept checks or money orders at any time.

DON'T HAVE AN EVENT TICKET? SHOW UP WITH GENERICS

Lots of events can squeeze in a few extra players and not all players show up for their games, so if there's an event you really want to play but it's sold out, you might want to get a few generics and see if you can get in. Generic tickets can be used for any event with open space. You just need to use an equal value of generics for the event, so if it a game costs $4, you can use 2 generic tickets ($2 each) to play in it.

Please remember that generic tickets can only be refunded for system credit.

HOW TO READ THE EVENT CHARTS

Events are listed in order of their start day and time, event type, and then title.

The description for each event lists the title, detailed description, maximum number of players, the GM or host of the event, minimum age and experience required and whether materials are provided or you will need to bring your own.

Repeat Events

Events that are run multiple times only have their description listed once. Later sessions refer you back to the original listing for full details and descriptions.

For example, if you found an event that said "For description, see first occurrence on Thursday at 8 am" that means the event is being repeated and you will need to flip back to get the full description.

Age Required

The minimum age for an event is self-reported and enforced only by the GM of that event. You can use this to gauge what events may be suitable for you or your family, but Gen Con is not responsible for the content of games that other organizations and individuals run at the convention. Remember to take the age rating into consideration before joining an event.

Experience Required

This indicates how much experience you will need with the game to play in the event. "None" indicates that rules will be taught as part of the event, so it should be completely suitable for newcomers. Please take careful note of the experience required for an event – some games do require extensive understanding of the rules and will not be paused to explain the rules.

Materials Provided

If materials are provided, you do not need to bring anything to the game (though it's always a good idea to bring a pencil, paper and some extra dice). Characters, game pieces, miniatures, maps, etc. should all be provided for you by the organizer. If materials are not provided, then you will need to bring your own armies, characters, cards or even the whole game.

Location

This column lists the building, room and table (if applicable and in that order) that the event will be held at. ICC stands for "Indiana Convention Center." Hyatt : Studio 1 : 1--2 means that event is held on tables 1 and 2 in the Studio 1 room in the Hyatt hotel, for example.

Some rooms or table numbers may also include a color (White 13--17) or company name (Wizards of the Coast). This refers to a region within a larger room (such as a big hall) which should be clearly indicated on a map or with signs or tablecloths in the area itself. If an event lists an HQ instead of a table number, you need to check into that HQ before your event to find out exactly what table your game is at.

GEN CON PRESENTS

These events might deserve a second look. Maybe they're new. Maybe they've got an extra special something. Maybe they just hold a special place in our heart. Whatever the reason, check them out.

STACK IT!

Sure, other block-stacking games are fun, but where's the strategy when every piece is the same? Stack It! lets you choose any piece you want before placing it onto the structure. The only catch... your piece must touch the last piece played. The last player to successfully add a piece without making Stack It! topple - WINS!

LEVEL 7®
[ESCAPE]

EXPERIENCE A NEW LEVEL OF FEAR

Deep underground, in the middle of nowhere, lies a top-secret military installation filled with the unspeakable horrors of science gone wrong.

Abducted from your daily life, you are a human guinea pig in the facility's deepest laboratory, the hall of nightmares known as LEVEL 7. Your singular goal is to escape, but to do that you will have to evade the inhuman and human denizens of this subterranean labyrinth before the entire base is locked down, sealing you in for the rest of your short, tormented life.

Will you work together with your fellow prisoners to endure the facility's endless perils, or will you use them to secure your own escape? Ultimately, your chances of survival will depend on how well you manage your greatest weapon, which is also your greatest threat: fear itself.

Receive a FREE exclusive PROMO CARD when you experience LEVEL 7 [ESCAPE], only at the Privateer Press Booth (#623).
